Expanko Welcomes New Agent Serving Metropolitan New York Area

January 29, 2019— Expanko Resilient Flooring, a brand of Stonhard, is pleased to welcome Lana Kleter of CityScapes NYC as a new agent to its expanding network. Expanko has more than 20 agents supporting its distinct cork and rubber lines of flooring throughout the U.S. CityScapes NYC serves architects, designers, and end-users throughout metropolitan New York.

“Lana has an extensive background calling on interior designers within the New York metro market. She came highly recommended and we recognized her as an industry peer who aligned with our offerings and experience with our customer base. She understands the needs of the New York design community, has a great presence, and a lot to offer,” says Sally Reis, General Manager of Expanko.

CityScapes NYC focuses on bringing cost-effective, environmentally-friendly, and innovative solutions to New York’s commercial, healthcare, and higher education clients, among others. CityScapes NYC’s Principle, Lana Kleter, says, “Expanko has a great story with an excellent line of products that helps us bring a complete package to our customer base. In addition, I prefer to work with manufacturers who have a focus on sustainable products.”

CityScapes adds Expanko resilient flooring to its current offerings of custom glass boards, furniture products, and textiles.
